

DO YOU HAVE A CONCERN ABOUT THE QUALITY OF CARE YOU RECEIVED?

Naval Hospital Beaufort, a Joint Commission Accredited Healthcare Organization (JCAHO), wants to know about it.

The Joint Commission encourages you to bring your concerns to the attention of your health care organization's leaders. If this does not lead to a resolution, you may take your concerns to the Joint Commission for review.

For more information about how to voice a concern, you may contact the JCAHO Coordinator at (843) 228-5695 or at patientconcerns@beaufort.med.navy.mil or you may call the Joint Commission directly at (800) 994-6610.
